

Hello Jane Farms, LLC Farm Share Agreement

Hello Jane Farms is committed to offering the most diverse options of locally grown, sustainably raised produce and other items. We pride ourselves on providing our members and community with only the best quality products and services.

Membership in the Hello Jane Farms Farm Share is open to all. Families and individuals of all ages are welcome and urged to join! Members will receive products offered in the Farm Share based upon the number of options each member purchases and produce availability.

Shares may be paid in full prior to the beginning of the twenty-week season or in two installments; half at the beginning of the season on June 1, 2020 and the remainder of the payment due July 1, 2020.

I understand that farming is a seasonal and unpredictable undertaking. Natural disasters such as drought, windstorms, and disease may impact what products are available, how much of a particular product is available and the quality of the product. I understand that these conditions could occur and affect the product that I receive or even result in an entire crop being destroyed. In the event that a certain product is unavailable, Hello Jane Farms will offer a 'farm-credit' in the amount of the lost product which can be redeemed at any time throughout the growing season.

I understand that I am committing myself to picking up my allotted share on a weekly basis. I understand if I do not pick up my share it will be forfeited three days past the initial pick-up date.

I understand that this agreement with Hello Jane Farms will begin June 1, 2020 and end October 16, 2020. I understand that my involvement in the Hello Jane Farms Farm Share program can be terminated by the Owner, John Bailey at any time if payment has not been met or the purchaser has violated the agreement in anyway.

I understand that if I choose to quit or if I am asked to leave the Farm Share, I will be offered farm credit or a refund for the remaining balance, which will be determined by Hello Jane Farms and the remaining time left in the Farm Share contract. If a refund is given, this refund will not be a whole refund and the deduction from the full amount will be proportional to the value I have received during my time with the Farm Share.
